Speaker Wadsworth in taking the chair spoke as follows:

"I accept the office of Speaker of this House with a full appreciation of the grave responsibilities which it carries.

"Speaker Nixon by reason of his exceptional ability and absolute fairness commanded the respect, confidence and personal affection of all the members resardless of party affiliations during the seven years of his incumbency.

"I cannot hope to equal his manvellous ability as a presiding afficer, but I do hope to equal his manvellous ability as a presiding afficer, but I do hope to equal his minimum of spirit, and, without begging charity at your hands, I want you to know that if I do extit will be an expect and have a right to expect that the work of this assion be performed with theoreustness and expedition. A session unduly prolonged is not only a hardship upon at as individuals, but imposes an unnecessary burden upon the taxpayers.

"The very gravity of the problems which confront us makes it essential that hey be approached and solved in such a manner as to happing among the people that confidence in their duly elected representatives which is necessary to a successful administration of the affairs of our State.
